Remarks

This house, is fenced at the front and conveniently on the main road, at the front of an expansive and fertile piece of land. This home offers the perfect blend of solid construction and natural beauty in the surrounding. The land is over half an acre with fruit trees and has steps in the garden towards the sparkling ocean. The main living area, located on the upper floor, features two cozy bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom. Both kitchens upstairs and downstairs look out to the ocean. The lower level of the house offers two additional bedrooms and a bathroom. This configuration opens up to various possibilities, including the potential for rental income. With just over half an acre of land to call your own, you'll have plenty of space to explore your green thumb and embrace excellent agricultural opportunities.

A unique feature of this property is the staircase nestled within the verdant garden. It leads directly to the ocean, granting you easy access to the shoreline whenever you desire.
